

Characteristics

ETRI's ventilation solutions for the aerospace industry are designed to ensure reliable performance in critical systems, including cabin ventilation, cooling of on-board electronics and safety systems. Available in AC versions at 400 Hz and 115 V or 200 V, and DC at 28 V, they are potentially compliant with standards such as DO-160 and various MIL standards.